

DON'T BLINK

Words and Music by CHRIS WALLIN and CASEY BEATHARD

Moderately slow $\text{♩} = 76$

G D C D G D C D

Verse:

G D C D

1. I turned on the eve - ning news, saw an old man be - ing in - ter - viewed, —
2. I was glued to my — T V, when it looked like he looked at me and said, turn - ing a hun - dred and two — to - day.

G D C D

"Best start put - tin' first — things first. 'Cause when your

G D C D

They asked him, "What's the se - cret to life?" — He looked up — from his — old pipe, — hour - glass runs out of sand, — you can't flip it o - ver and start a - gain. — laughed, and said, "All I can say is: } Don't Take ev-'ry breath God gives you for what it's worth. }

Chorus:

blink. Just like that, you're six years old and you're tak-in' naps, and you wake up and you're twen-ty - five, and your high school sweet - heart be-comes your wife. Don't blink. You just might miss your ba - bies grow - in' like mine did, turn-in' in - to moms _ and dads. Next thing you know, your bet-ter half of fif -

G D C D

Am7(4) G/B C G/B

- ty years ___ is there in bed, and you're pray - in' God _ takes you in - stead. _

Am7 1. D

Trust me, friend, _ a hun-dred years ___ goes fast - er than _ you think, ___ so don't _

To Coda ⊕

G D C D G D

blink.?"

2.

C D D G D

fast - er than - you think, so don't _____ blink." (Inst. solo ad lib...

C D G D C D

...end solo) I've been try'n' to

Bridge:

Am G/B

slow it down. I've been try'n' to take it in, _____ in this here _ to - day, gone to - mor - row world _ we're liv - in' in. _____ Don't _

C D

D.S. al Coda

Coda

fast - er than_ you think, ____ so don't_ blink. _

No, _ don't ____ blink. Don't _ __ blink. Life _ goes fast - er than_ you think. _ Don't _

Repeat ad lib. and fade

__ blink. Life _ goes fast - er than_ you think. _ Don't _