Invitation

“Angels from the Realms of Glory” #220 UMH (VS. 1, 2 & 4)

Call to Worship (Congregational response in bold)

L: Beloved, God calls to us—like Joseph—through angels and messengers, inviting us to listen for the Spirit’s guidance in the midst of half-truths and distractions.

P: We listen faithfully for the day that all the earth awaits.

L: Sometimes, angels surprise us (as they did Mary) with good news too fantastical to believe and yet too real—realer than real—to ignore.

P: We listen faithfully for the day that all the earth awaits.

L: For generations, God has sent signs of God’s coming kingdom in unexpected places—the birth of a child, the wisdom of the lowly, the faithfulness of a carpenter.

P: We listen faithfully for the day that all the earth awaits.

L: Come! Let us worship God who calls out to us, inviting us to faithfulness as we watch, wait, and work for the day when the whole world knows the abundant love and grace of Emmanuel, God-with-us.

P: Come! Let us worship as we listen faithfully for the day that all the earth awaits.

Things to Keep in Mind

~During our worship service on Sunday, November 2, we will recognize All Saints Day. This is an opportunity to give thanks for all those who have gone before us in the faith. It is a time to celebrate our history, what United Methodists call the tradition of the church.

John Wesley, founder of the Methodist movement, especially enjoyed and celebrated All Saints Day. In a journal entry from November 1, 1767, Wesley calls it “a festival I truly love.” On the same day in 1788, he writes, “I always find this a comfortable day.” The following year he calls it “a day that I peculiarly love.”

If you have lost a loved one during the past year, please check with Ashley Detoledo or John Sarns to be sure your loved one is on the list of names to be read on November 2.

If you provide a picture, we can include it on the screen during the service.

~Daylight Saving Time ends at 2:00 AM on November 2, 2025!

So don't forget to move your clocks BACKWARD one hour Saturday night, November 1, before you go to bed

Enjoy an extra hour of sleep and come to church wide awake and ready to worship our God!

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." -Proverbs 3:5-6

Winter Blessings
Matthew 25: 35-45

For the past few years our church has collected socks to donate to the Hazel Park Community Holiday Baskets. The Basket committee receives socks now from the Bombas sock company. Since this community need seems to be taken care of, we are turning our focus elsewhere.

We have unhoused people stopping by our church frequently seeking assistance. At the council meeting this month we decided to make their needs our community outreach this year. We would like to collect items such as socks, hats, warm gloves, and hand warmers. Other things that would help are toothbrushes and paste, ChapSticks, moist towelettes, and ready to eat food items. Along with these new items, we would also like to have a supply of gently used clean coats, boots, warm clothes and blankets. Colleen is preparing a collection box for donations.

I know in the past we have collected socks only until Christmas, but this would be an ongoing collection just as the need is always there.

May you and your family be blessed during this holiday season and always,
Sue
